

Mindjet Technology Guarantee

The Mindjet Technology Guarantee entitles individuals who purchase MindManager 8 (new or upgrade) from July 12, 2010 until the launch of MindManager Version 9 for Windows to receive a free electronic download upgrade to the new version when it becomes available.

How does the Mindjet Technology Guarantee work?

If you purchase or upgrade to MindManager 8 for Windows between July 12, 2010 and the launch of MindManager Version 9 from an authorized reseller you are eligible for the Technology Guarantee.

When MindManager, Version 9 for Windows is available you can request your new license key and download until September 30, 2010 online at:

<http://mindjet.com/support/contact/overview>

Please have the following information ready when you request and redeem your free upgrade:

- Your dated sales receipt as a proof of purchase
- Product license key

If you are a Mindjet License Program customer, Mindjet will send your new license key via email.
